STEWARDED OUR GIFTS: WHO ARE YOU FOLLOWING? Today's gospel presents us with one of the most empowering passages in scripture: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations..." Jesus is not making a suggestion here, it is a commission—an order, if you will. He is sending us forth as missionary disciples to continue doing His work. The task is enormous, but Jesus has assured us of His immense power and has promised us that He is with us always. He is not sending us out alone and He has not asked us to accomplish the work single-handedly. Remember that as stewards, we have been given gifts and when we share those gifts in love and gratitude, Jesus can multiply them in exponential ways.
